Kenſington, October 6.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has been preſented to his Majeſty (in the Abſence of his Grace) by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of the City of Waterford.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects do with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Congratulations on the late happy Addition of a Prince to your Royal Houſe.

And as the Increaſe of your illuſtrious Iſſue endow'd with your eminent Virtues, is the moſt perfect Aſſurance that we can have of conveying to Poſterity thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings which your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration has ſecured unto us; We therefore, with the utmoſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude, join our moſt earneſt Wiſhes for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, to our Hopes of a numerous and proſperous Iſſue in every Branch of your Royal Family.

Rome, Sept. 20, N. S. The King of Naples has ordered the Building of a Ship of War of 40 Guns, and 'twas ſaid that four Gallies will alſo be built for the Squadron of Sicily. The Hereditary Grandees of Spain at Naples, who were not allowed to cover before the King, becauſe they had never been at the Court of Spain, have obtained that Privilege by Leave of his Catholick Majeſty, and accordingly they have begun to enjoy it at the Court of Naples; on which Occaſion the Duke de Giovenazzo, the Prince di Baſignano, and the Marqueſſes del Vaſto, di Caniglia, and di Teraci, kiſſed the King's Hand. The Pope, on the Rumour that the Duke of Modena deſigns to make an Attempt on Ferrara, has ordered thither a Reinforcement of Soldiers. The Grand Duke of Tuſcany has asked Leave of the Pope to raiſe a Contribution on the Eccleſiaſticks in his Dominions; to which Requeſt the Pope has not yet conſented, 'tis ſaid, on Account of the Dependency of the two Fiefs of Scavolina and Carpegna, which is yet unſettled. Count Rovera is daily expected here as Miniſter Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, to confirm the Reconciliation between this Court and that of Turin.

Leghorn, Sept. 24. By Order from the Council of Regency, ſeveral Military Officers of this Garriſon have been diſmiſs'd: To ſome few of them, in Conſideration of their Services, a ſmall Penſion has been allowed, on Condition that they ſhall not go out of Tuſcany. The Commanders of all the Towers and ſmall Forts along the Sea Coaſts are alſo diſcharged; inſtead of whom Serjeants from the neighbouring Garriſons are order'd to take Charge of the ſaid Forts, &c.

Florence, Sept, 29. In Conſequence of the Conferences held by M. de Braitewiz at the Council of War, about 80 Tuſcan Officers have been diſmiſſed from the reſpective Fortreſſes, Garriſons, and Places of Tuſcany. On the 19th, M. de Wachtendonck arrived here from Leghorn, in order to forward the military Plan for the new regulating and forming of a Tuſcan Regiment, which is to be compoſed of 17 Companies of 120 Men each, on the German Footing; as well as to conſult with the Receiver General of the Grand Duke's Revenues the Manner for ſupplying regularly the Appointments to the Imperial Troops in Tuſcany, to be reimburſed, it is ſaid, to the Grand Duke at Vienna, out of the Emperor's Treaſury. On the 20th, M. de Wachtendonck had an Audience of the Electoreſs Dowager Palatine, and on the 25th, attended by two Imperial Officers, whom he brought with him from Leghorn, ſet out from hence to inſpect the Fortreſſes and Paſſages on the Mugello and the Bologna Road. On the 15th the Duke of Modena ſet out from Saſſuolo for Maſſa, by the way of Seravezza.

Whitehall,

(Price Two Pence.)

Whitehall, September 1, 1738.

Whereas divers evil-disposed Persons have, for some time past, made a Practice of filing Guineas, and putting them off at the Bank, and other Places: His Majesty, for the apprehending the Persons concerned in filing Guineas as aforesaid, is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in the abovesaid Practice. And whereas some of the Persons concerned in filing of Guineas have been supplied with Engines for edging or milling the Guineas after they have been filed as aforesaid, by one or more Persons that have made the same for the Purposes aforesaid; His Majesty, for the apprehending any Person or Persons concerned in the making or mending any Engine or Instrument made for the edging or milling any of the Gold Coin of this Kingdom, doth promise the like Reward, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in making or mending any Instrument made for the Purposes aforesaid. And whereas John Carter, Francis Kelham, David Roberts, and Joseph Benson, against whom Informations have been taken upon Oath, have, since the Discovery of these Facts, left their Habitations, and absconded: His Majesty is pleased to promise the like Reward for the apprehending each of them, upon their or either of their being convicted; and, as a further Encouragement, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts. HARRINGTON.

John Carter is a tall thin Man, of a pale Complexion, and is lame of one Foot which turns inwards; he is a Watch-Graver by Trade, formerly kept an Ale-house in West-Smithfield, but lodged last at the Duke's Head in St. John's Square.

Francis Kelham, a little Man with a red Complexion, who lately kept the Rose and Crown Ale-house in Bartholomew Close, till he absconded. They have both been frequently seen at Horse Races, Gaming-Tables, Hazard, Cockfighting Matches.

David Roberts, by Trade a Carpenter, about 5 Foot 8 or 9 Inches high, of a fairish fresh Complexion, about 35 Years of Age, who kept the Coach and Horses Inn in the City of Coventry about two Years ago, since lodged in Cold Bath Fields, London, afterwards at one Williams, a Chandler on Saffron Hill, afterwards moved and kept a House in the Market-place, Hoxton, from thence moved to the Broad Sanctuary, Westminster, from thence to the Mulberry Garden in St. George's Fields, Southwark, from thence to Wood's Close near Clerkenwell; his last Habitation was near the Three Hats, Islington.

Joseph Benson, about 5 Foot 6 Inches high, between 60 and 70 Years old, stoops a little, wears a Wig, and his Hair pretty long under it, and is a thin spare Man, born near Naresborough in Yorkshire, by Trade a Gunsmith, noted for making Cross Bows, formerly lived in Dublin; his last Place of Habitation was at Cats-Hole in St. Catherine's, near the Tower. N. B. Joseph Benson is the Maker of the Engine lately found in the New River, and has made several Engines for milling the Guineas, and is reckoned by the Gunsmiths an ingenious Man at his Business. Whoever apprehends either of the said Persons, or any other Person concerned in these Practices, may apply themselves to Mr. Ashton, in Surry-street in the Strand, or to Mr. North, near Fishmongers-Hall, in Thames street.

General Post Office, London, August 27, 1738.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the North Mail from London, was set upon and robbed by a single Person on Foot, this Morning between the Hours of Two and Three, on this Side Kingsland, near London: The Postmaster General thinks proper to make it publickly known, That whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entituled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Order of the Post Master General,

The Person who committed this Robbery, is described to be a middle-siz'd Man, had on a light-colour'd close bodied Coat, with close Sleeves, and a full Bob Wig pretty light, with a Paper Mask over his Face. He carried off the five following Bags, viz. Hartford, Peterborough, Horncastle, Louth, and Boston; and likewise took the greatest Part of the Letters out of the Enfield, Ware, St. Ives, and Royston Bags.

Note, There were two Men at a small Distance from him, suppos'd to be his Accomplices.

General Post-Office, London, Sept. 13, 1738.

Whereas the Post-Boy, carrying the Bristol Mail from London, was set upon and robbed by three Men on Horseback, and one on Foot, about three of the Clock this Morning, between Knightsbridge and Kensington, who carried off the Bristol, Bath, Hereford, Leominster, and Presteign Bags.

The Postmaster General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever shall apprehend the Persons who committed this Robbery, or any of them, will, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Accomplice in the said Robbery shall make a Discovery of the Persons (or any of them) who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Order of the Postmaster General

Whitehall, October 6, 1738.

Whereas a Letter sign'd R. W. was found at the Door of Robert Harvey, Esq; Mayor of the City of Norwich, on the 28th of September last in the Evening, threatning to burn his House, and if that failed to shoot him, and two other Persons, unless he comply'd with certain Conditions therein mentioned: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them that shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the Court of Mayoralty of the said City of Norwich do hereby promise One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making the same as aforesaid; to be paid by the Chamberlain of the said City, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Neh. Lodge, Town Clerk.
